“The Internet is so big, so powerful and pointless that for some people it is a complete substitute for life.”

Andrew Brown, British journalist

The background of the slide is a wide-angle, aerial photograph of a city at night. The city is densely packed with buildings of various heights, many of which are brightly lit from within, creating a grid-like pattern of lights. A major highway or railway line cuts through the city, with its tracks or lanes visible as glowing streaks. In the distance, a bridge spans a body of water. The overall atmosphere is one of a vibrant, modern urban center.
